

Don't you have more things to do other than changing a law that has given me peace @ dinner time. I cannot understand why chnaging NJ DNC list because telemarketers are complaining that they cannot get through. That is the whole purpose of the list. I fully understoof the list when I signed it. Find something else to do because this is just a waste of time and energy.